

Highlights from 33rd

ACMO AGM

ACMO'S 33RD Annual General Meeting of members was a well-attended event held on April 16, 2010, at the Richmond Hill Golf and Country Club. Items on the agenda included the auditor's report and election of board members. The Association is in a good financial position as reported by ACMO's auditor, Park Thompson of Furlong and Company.

Committee chairpersons reported on the 2009/2010 activities of each committee: Associates; Certification and Standards; Condominium Management Standards Council; Ethics; Government Relations; Luncheon; Membership and Marketing; Professional Development and Regional.

Elections were held for board directors with Karen Reynolds, RCM and Steven Christodoulou, RCM receiving second terms on the board. We extend a warm welcome to ACMO's newest director Audrey McGuire, RCM, a regional vice president of Larlyn and we extend our thanks to Cynthia Chung for her contribution to the board during her tenure.

The ACMO event was followed by the National Association of Condominium Managers' groundbreaking inaugural AGM and a special luncheon with guest speaker from Newfoundland and Labrador, Charlie Oliver, RCM. (See our coverage of the NACM AGM on page 36.)

Chris Antipas, RCM and ACMO president, conferring with executive director Amanda Curtis, CAE.

Park Thompson, of Furlong and Company, explains the financials in his role as ACMO's auditor.

Steven Christodoulou, ACMO director and treasurer enjoys a light moment with ACMO vice president Dean McCabe.

Photos: Kierstin Henrickson