

Association of Condominium Managers of Ontario

For Immediate Release

Percel Inc. Achieves ACMO 2000 Certification
Twelve Condominium Management Companies Now ACMO 2000 Certified

February 7, 2007. Mississauga. The Association of Condominium Managers of Ontario (ACMO) is pleased to announce that Percel Inc. has achieved its ACMO 2000 Certification.

The ACMO 2000 program was launched in 1999. At that time the International Standards Organization (ISO) had recognized that service industries were capable of developing measurable processes, which resulted in predictable levels of service quality. Today, the Association of Condominium Managers of Ontario is the only Association that has created a quality of service certification program specific to its industry.

ACMO 2000 certification is administered by the Business Development Bank of Canada and requires a company to demonstrate business practices within eight core areas of operation.

ACMO 2000 is a complementary program to the Association's widely recognized Registered Condominium Manager (RCM) designation. "There are now close to 400 RCMs in the province and condominium boards have increasingly come to expect management companies to provide an RCM to manage their property," states Harold Cipin, RCM, and ACMO's president. "This is because they believe that an RCM has the necessary education and training to ensure the client receives quality service."

It is ACMO's goal to continually raise the bar for professional and management standards and to have the RCM designation and ACMO 2000 certification become an expectation of condominium corporations and their residents.

Congratulations to the management and professional team at Percel Inc. on their successful completion of the ACMO 2000 process.

Percel now joins the following ACMO 2000 certified companies:

Active Management Ltd.
Brookfield Residential Services Ltd.
Caber Management Services Inc.
CLP Property Management Inc.
Com/Sec Property Management Ltd.
Del Property Management Inc.
Fengate Property Management Limited
Larlyn Property Management Ltd.
M.F. Property Management Ltd.
Malvern Condominium Property Management
Provincial Property Management Limited

ACMO membership is open to condominium managers, management companies, and suppliers to the condominium community. Full details of the association's services, publications and membership can be found at www.acmo.org.

For further information please contact:

Amanda Curtis, CAE
Executive Director
905.826.6890
acurtis@acmo.org